Sir,

Establishment - Collector and District Magistrate's Office - Mr. V. Purushotham Pillay, Clerk - fixing of pay - sanction - requested.

Mr. V. Purushotham Pillay, a clerk of this office, was appointed Military clerk (on Rs.50/-) on the 22nd July 1937. His pay was then Rs.36/- in the new scale, including an increment sanctioned in July 1936. He has been granted extraordinary leave from the Collector's office while holding the post of Military clerk so that his services from the 22nd July 1937 will not count for increment and on reversion to his permanent post his pay will be only Rs.36/-. Had he remained in his permanent post he would have drawn Rs.39/- from the 7th July 1938. I recommend that he be allowed to count the period of his service as Military clerk, conformably with the concession granted to previous Military clerks vide the Hon'ble the Resident's Proceedings No.1575 dated the 19th February 1930 and No.F.178(3)-36/R.O.I, dated the 19th January 1937.
